

Petersfield Museum – Recruitment Information

- Petersfield Museum is committed to achieving equal opportunities and welcomes applications from all interested parties without regard to age, disabilities, gender, religious beliefs, colour, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, political persuasion, or marital status.
- If you apply for a job, internship or work experience with Petersfield Museum, we will need to collect certain personal data and special category data as part of the application procedure.

By providing information within your application and / or CV and any other accompanying documents, you are consenting to its use for the purpose of processing your application and assessing your suitability to the position applied for.

If your application is unsuccessful, our policy is to delete / destroy the application six months after the closing date.

- Candidates will be asked to show that they are eligible to work in the UK and will be subject to identity checks. References will be taken for successful candidates.
- Please refer to the Museum's Privacy Policy, which is available on our website, for details of the personal data and special category data we may collect about you and what we may do with that data.